

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR JOB OPENING

MARCC, the Metropolitan Area Religious Coalition of Cincinnati announces an opening for the position of Executive Director. MARCC is an organization consisting of religious denominations working together to improve local social concerns by interacting with members of the religious community, elected officials, and local non-profits.

The Executive Director oversees and reports to a Board of representatives from faith-based communities and is responsible for helping form the vision of the organization as well as executing day-to-day operations to further MARCC's objectives.

Applicants must have at least a bachelor's degree, a minimum of 5 years' experience in the non-profit sector, human services, or social justice organizations, possess strong communication and advocacy skills and must have a respectful understanding and appreciation of diverse religious and cultural communities.

Salary range $70,000-75-000

Send applications, with cv/resumes, by May 3, 2024 to marcc@marcconline.com, attention: Holly Toensing.